Purple Patches

FOREWORD

In the artist's world, familiar words are these: "When in doubt, use purple." Purple is used a great deal to make the somber shadows in a painting. However, this year purple will be far removed from shadows . . . the PURPLE PATCHES are your fondest thoughts, the gay highlights, your happiest moments at Peace in 1950 . . .

Dedication

To Mrs. Birdie McKinney Rowland, assistant dean of women at Peace from 1940 to 1949, we affectionately dedicate the Lotus of 1950.

Mrs. Rowland was the essence of kindness among us. With dignity, queenly control of disposition, loftiness of thought, sincerity, and graciousness to all, she was always willing to help us with our problems. In every sense of the term she is to us a pattern of Christian womanhood.

Tribute

For the three years that Marjorie Love Farmer has been at Peace we have turned to her for understanding and guidance. She has given liberally and graciously of her sympathy and wisdom. So is strengthened our growing spirit of loyalty, so is deepened our belief in our own ideals and those she has helped create in us. In helping us realize the joy of college friendship, the wonder of opportunity, the beauty of devotion, she points out to us a way of life.

Mrs. Farmer is always eager, sympathetic, and generous, and is forever enthroned in the heart of each of us.

Alma Mater

In the heart of Carolina,
 'Neath the skies of blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
 Glorious to view.
Classic in her broad proportions,
 Looks she proudly down—
Reared against the arch of heaven,
 With the stars for crown.

Chorus

Lift the chorus, speed it onward;
 Let it never cease;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
 Hail, all hail, to Peace!

College

Administration

DR. W. C. PRESSLY

President

Dr. Pressly's friendly counsel and guidance have meant much to the students of this college generation. His devotion to the most minute of individual problems and his personal interest in the solution of these problems are the qualities which best characterize him in the eyes of all Peace girls.

MISS MAY McLELLAND

Dean

We respect and feel a great admiration for our dean whose never-failing interest in all our activities has won for her a large place in our hearts. She has been our ideal adviser in every way.

Class History

Yes, there were to be many "Purple Patches" during our years spent at Peace. We may not have realized it at first, but as the time flew by we saw more and more why people think that college life is "the" life.

We didn't know quite what to do with ourselves that first week at school. Maybe we were a little homesick but that's to be expected. The various organizations certainly did their part to make us feel at home. We were introduced to clubs and were initiated into the society of our choice.

Football season came. Carolina . . . State . . . Choo-Choo . . . Bands . . . Cheerleaders . . . Streamers . . . Parades . . . all these added to the list of memories of our college life. When these things were in store for us each week-end, the time during the week passed faster, and the work seemed easier.

The parties and dances given by the State boys were a big success for some of us. A few girls were even lucky enough to find some innocent bystanders who always happened to come in handy when a big "shin-dig" was coming up, and "the" one wasn't in town.

The place cards and menus pasted in our scrapbooks always bring to mind the annual Society Banquet. This was the event that we had looked forward to with enthusiasm since "rat day!" This was "l'apogee" after early morning risings, pig-tailed heads and painted faces.

By now Christmas carols had become top choice in place of the popular music, and it was once again time to don our costumes for the P.S.C.A. pageant. Even though the theme was the same as the year before, it brought out a new spirit in the girls.

Leaving Bill after Christmas holidays was hard—a thing to be expected—but with another large picture to place on the desk we'd rest assured that he wouldn't escape from our minds. But our parents—that was a different story—nothing could take their place. Campus Missions and the Week of Sharing helped us get back into the "swing of things." The Society plays were entertaining and showed us the hidden talents of our classmates.

After our short spring vacation was in the past, our thoughts automatically turned to the May Day performance. Practically all of us participated in it, and the work was hard, but it was worth it just to be able to think that we had helped to make it what it was.

The May Day was about the last of our social activities for the year. The remainder of the time was spent in getting ready for exams and for commencement day which was to mean so much to us.

The commencement exercises were not soon to be forgotten, nor were our friends here at Peace. The Seniors left with the knowledge that they would never again take an active part in Peace life. We, who were yet to be Seniors, looked forward to the next year which would be full of more pleasant memories.

Our summer escapades are too numerous to be mentioned here, but to sum it all up, it was simply wonderful.

Being a Senior didn't cause us to feel any different, but at least we knew our way around. Now we were the ones who were looked upon for help, instead of looking for help ourselves. Now we had to put away those little things we did to violate the rules and try to set an example for the underclassmen. After all, we were looked upon as a ray of hope for those who were just starting out in their college career.

Peace never changes in its traditions, fundamentals, and foundations. From year to year many a new and strange face passes back and forth through its portals, but the trials, tribulations and rituals always remain the same. One never tires of them, even though they are similar.

Campus Missions, the Week of Sharing, and the Society Banquet rolled around once again. Peanut Week was an event of the year too. After a week of small favors and thoughtful gestures thrust upon us by our mysterious "peanut," we finally discovered this new little "elf" who had befriended us for seven whole days. From that time on a new avenue was opened up on a wider street of friendship.

The Junior-Senior was the biggest dance of the year, and it was looked forward to for a long time. This was the one time of the year when everyone thought she had to have a new formal. Parents may have groaned a little at first when they saw the charge account, but after all, this was a big event! The last dance! They had a daughter they should be proud of—after all, one just doesn't graduate every day! But, we don't think they really minded too much!

At last, the day we had waited for so long was here—the last day! Somehow, we just couldn't clear those big lumps in our throats nor moisten our dry mouths enough to say our sad "adieu"—But the tears came—We weren't quite as anxious this year to dash from these dear portals, to wish everyone a joyful farewell! The vivid memories of our two years at Peace would stand out as a series of "Purple Patches" forever.

Prophecy

Purple Patches from the "Peace Bulletin"

Over a cup of coffee in the thoughtful but relaxing atmosphere of her library, another "old Peace girl" and I fell to reminiscing about our school days at Peace. As if by telepathy, both of us broke out in laughter simultaneously because the same thought had come to our minds. Yes—we both remembered how we had struggled together to write the class prophecy for the Lots of 1950. Its theme for that year had been "Purple Patches," and we had really made great predictions in the lives of all the Seniors. Naturally, being women, we were both curious to see how right our intuitions and vivid imaginations had been; so my hostess suggested that we delve into her pile of Peace Bulletins published since then and check up on the futures we had planned. We found the following choice bits of news and discovered that life had added a few "Purple Patches" of its own to our dreams:

Miss Florrie Britman is preparing an anthology of contemporary poetry after having her own recognized by the winning of the Pulitzer Prize.

Misses Katherine Blue and Nancy Love Coble were heard at Town Hall in New York in the first of a series of twin concerts. The critics raved!!

The three Boney girls are now scattered. Mollie Anne is the Director of Religious Education at Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York. Janet is Admiral Fulano's executive secretary at the Navy Department in Washington, D. C. At last Sue has decided to follow the family profession and is now studying architectural engineering at the University of Chicago.

You may have noticed Anne Cabe's red-haired triplets on the cover of Sports Weekly which is edited by her husband.

Virginia Corbett is the only member of the class of 1950 who is on the faculty at Peace. She accepted the position of Physical Education director in September of this year.

Joan Ferrell is now a prize football scout for Coach Carl Snavelly at U.N.C. She's still trying to find another "Choo-Choo."

For the first time in the recorded history of art, two artists have succeeded in combining style in their creation of the Primitive Masterpiece of their age. They are none other than Virginia Garner and Millie Lou Wyatt.

Gwen Gore and her husband composed the winning team in the mixed doubles at Wimbledon last season.

Nan Farmer and Ethel Harrison have started an experimental kindergarten from which Mrs. Suggs, the former Jane Phinney, draws many of the ideas which she uses in the home-making section of the Ladies Home Journal, of which she is editor.

Renowned hostess Jane King has just succeeded Mrs. Pearl Mesta as our second woman ambassador to Luxembourg.

Jacquelin Quesenbery, recently married to Buck Philcannon, is continuing her law practice in their hometown of Waynesboro, Va.

Sally Townsend was recently elected President of the Chamber of Commerce of Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Josephine West recently received much favorable publicity for her work in locating documents stolen from the Library of Congress, where she is curator.

Carmen and Fina Leis, whose beautiful double wedding was the biggest and best since Rita and Aly's, have doubled again in nativity. They have a set of twins each.

The path of Aurora Freire's social whirl causes her to appear unable to make up her mind between Mexico and Cuba. However, she seems to be having a gala time deciding!

We need say nothing of Frances Faithful, who is President of Faithful Inc., Advertisers. Carolyn Frink is now personal secretary and adviser to Frances Faithful, her old classmate.

Psychiatrist Merleon Godwin has been successful at effecting cures for common nervous indigestion.

Jane Herring recently added Colonial Pines to her chain of resorts over the nation.

Julia Anne Miles has succeeded "Sophie" as chief designer for Saks.

Virginia "Pete" Watts is now married and living in Chase City, Virginia, the home office of her husband's chain of Super Markets.

Sarah Frances Lassiter, who, during her stay at Peace, became proficient in her ability to check crowds, is now employed by Gallup Polls, Inc.

Anne Barnes is now teaching commercial subjects at the Needham-Broughton High School.

Doris Martin has recently opened an exclusive dancing salon which is patronized by the children of the elite in Westchester County, N. Y.

Carolyn Aiken and Polly Frazier have recently opened an office supply company here in Raleigh. They are rapidly pushing their way to the top by their own expert demonstrations of their machinery.

Betsy Ross James and Shirley Sorrell will sail next week for Europe where they will perform various services under the auspices of the United Nations.

The former Nancy Anne Rawls is living in New York at the present where her husband is performing as the star pitcher for the New York Giants.

Mary Thomas and Joyce Evans are an idea-production team. They are now operating an exclusive little dress shop in Walla Walla, Washington.

When we emerged from the pile of Bulletins, I found my visit had lasted longer than I had planned. I was to catch the next plane for home that evening. As I said my good-byes hurriedly and left, the sky was all aglow with "Ole Sol," his brilliance mingling with the clouds and the tall buildings at sunset. This brilliance displayed by Mother Nature stood before me symbolic of those "Purple Patches" that would continue to fill the lives of the Class of 1950.

JOYCE EVANS,
ADA AUSTIN,
Prophets.

1. Don't frighten the fish! 2. He'll be here in a minute. 3. Don't frown, Sue! 4. The familiar setting. 5. Check that pose. 6. Are the weiners all gone, Rhos? 7. Down the chute! 8. Just for grins! 9. Watch it girls, your faces may freeze! 10. Talk about glamour!

Last Will and Testament

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF WAKE
City of Raleigh

Peace College

We, the class of 1950, of the aforesaid county and city, being of a sound and disposing mind, realize that the time of departure is at hand; and, being possessed of certain articles, ideas, and ideals, accumulated during our stay, do hereby will and bequeath said articles, ideas, and ideals as follows:

ARTICLE 1

To our class sponsor, Mrs. Farmer, we leave our deepest love and appreciation for the interest she has shown in the class of '50.

ARTICLE 2

To the incoming Seniors, the Class of '51, we will all our virtues, including our talents, dignity, and good reputation. These valuable virtues we relinquish only with the assurance that they will be passed on to the succeeding Seniors in their present status, without any alterations.

ARTICLE 3

To the incoming Juniors, the Class of '52, we leave the motto "Pride goeth before a fall."

ARTICLE 4

To the incoming Sophomores, the Class of '53, we bequeath our abilities to cope with any situation.

ARTICLE 5

To the incoming Freshmen, we leave the motto, "Let your conscience be your guide."

ARTICLE 6

SECTION 1. To Miss McLelland we bequeath a flashlight in order to make her rounds with some degree of safety.

SECTION 2. To Dr. Pressly we bequeath an ideal student body—ever ready to accept responsibility and to acquire the graces possessed by the Peace girls of the past.

ARTICLE 7

SECTION 1. Florrie Beitman leaves her love of composing poetry to Jane Bond.

SECTION 2. Jo West wills her high enthusiasm to Mary Louise MacDonald.

SECTION 3. Joan Ferrell bequeaths her ardent love for "Choo-Choo" and "Frankie" to any girl who is capable of such undying devotion.

- SECTION 16. Mollie Anne Boney leaves her good disposition to Eutha Sharp.
- SECTION 17. Virginia Corbett leaves a vacancy in Miss Kuhn's Algebra Class to the girl who lives near enough to go home on Saturday.
- SECTION 18. Ethel Harrison bequeaths her soulful brown eyes to Rose Ina Weeks.
- SECTION 19. Shirley Sorrell wills her "free life as a day student" to the Boarding Student Body.
- SECTION 20. Mary Thomas leaves her "Sunny" smile to the girls of Peace on a rainy day in '51.
- SECTION 21. Frances Faithful wills her freedom to go to the "Little Drug" to the "Campus Kids."
- SECTION 22. Aurora Freire wills her four years' experience with the English language to Isora Peña.
- SECTION 23. Carolyn Frink bequeaths her quiet ways to Betty Moser.
- SECTION 24. To June Craig, Merleon Godwin wills her excess dates with those fascinating men from the "Country Club on the Hill."
- SECTION 25. Jane Herring wills her petite charm to Nancy Jo McAulay.
- SECTION 26. Carmen Leis bequeaths her fatal charm to Anne Mayfield.
- SECTION 27. To Alice Howell, Fina Leis bequeaths her rumba technique.
- SECTION 28. Doris Martin wills her position as president of the Pi Theta Mu Society to anyone who is capable of increasing its boarding student membership.
- SECTION 29. Julia Anne Miles leaves her dancing ability and good sportsmanship to Betty Holliday.
- SECTION 30. Nancy Rawls Warren bequeaths all "the other" Carolina men to the Peace girls who may have a hankering to be as lucky as she.
- SECTION 31. To the outstanding Commercial student of '51, Millie Lou Wyatt bequeaths her place in the Alpha Pi Epsilon Society.
- SECTION 32. Ann Barnes wills her seat in the new "rec" room to Ann Hunt.
- SECTION 33. Jane Phinney wills her domestic talents to Elizabeth Little.
- SECTION 34. To Judy Rhodes, Gloria Hasselman leaves her authentic Brooklyn accent.
- SECTION 35. Polly Frazier leaves her parking place to any one of next year's day students who happens to be lucky enough to have a car.
- SECTION 36. "Kacky" Blue leaves her soprano voice to Peggy McCain.

JANET CALDWELL,
ANNE SEAWELL,
KATHERINE BLUE,

Class Poem

Under the trees in majestic height
Stands Peace, crowned with bright sunlight—
So strong, so sure, so queenly dressed
In man's fine design, in nature's best.

Peace does stand stately but is ready to share
My smallest trouble, my greatest care,
And to sprinkle my days with Purple Patches—
Bright moments that come in lovely snatches.

The days of work and hours of ease
Have disappeared as leaves before a breeze.
And now I stand at her nuptial gate
To be wed to the world and my separate fate.

Farewells must be said to every part—
Farewells that come from an o'erflowing heart.

FLORRIE BEITMAN.

Activities

Peace Student Christian Association

The religious activities on campus are embodied in the Peace Student Christian Association. The Association, of which each girl in school is a member, is directed by a cabinet of four officers and eight chairmen of causes with Miss Lucy Steele as faculty adviser.

The first fall vespers is a dedication candlelight program with an old Peace girl as speaker.

All through the year the P.S.C.A. sponsors morning watch, weekly hall prayers, special Sunday night hymn sings, gifts of food baskets to the servants, the regular Sunday night vespers with special programs at Thanksgiving, a Christmas pageant, and in the spring a week of sharing. Once a month there is a guest speaker.

Our year closes on the last Sunday night with a rededication candlelight service when a Peace alumna is again the speaker.

For our theme verses for the year, we have chosen Proverbs 3:5, 6: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths."

Boarding Student Council

It is the desire of the Student Government at Peace to achieve a government by and for the girls. The Student Council is composed of nine members, elected by popular vote, who are placed upon their honor to maintain order and uphold the standards and ideals of Peace College.

West, Coble, Gore, Boney, Townsend, Lassiter, Evans, Blue, Seawell

Day Student Council

The purpose of the Day Student Council is to foster the interests of the day student group in all school activities. The Council holds the students as individuals in high regard and makes every effort to work with them in such a way as to create a coöperative and united group.

EDITORIAL STAFF

The 1950 Lotus has tried to present the "Purple Patches" of this year at Peace in such a way that every student can keep it in her heart forever.

Whatever is of creative value is the composite effort of a diligent staff and its adviser, Mrs. James S. Farmer.

BUSINESS STAFF

The duty of the Business Staff of the LOTUS is to finance the annual. The staff members begin their work early in the fall term. It is a pleasant task, for many of them in this way literally see Raleigh for the first time.

The staff hope that the advertising section will not be overlooked by those who enjoy the LOTUS. This section reveals which business establishments in Raleigh and in other places are interested in the success of the annual.

Miss Mary Kirkpatrick, who has devoted much of her time to guiding the business staff, is their able adviser.

Phi Theta Kappa

Phi Theta Kappa Fraternity, National Junior College Honorary Scholastic Society, was founded at Stephens College in Fulton, Missouri. Gamma Phi of Peace College is one of the one hundred fourteen chapters of the society.

The high objectives of Phi Theta Kappa are indicated in the official song:

Give us Wisdom, God, we pray,
That our lives from day to day
May reflect on all around us
That great gift which now has bound us.

JANE PHINNEY
President

Alpha Pi Epsilon

Alpha Pi Epsilon, the National Secretarial Honor Society, strives to develop character, scholarship, intelligence, leadership, and common sense, as well as skill in secretarial achievement.

The Tau Chapter, established at Peace College in 1942, is sponsored by Miss Thetis Shepherd.

Sigma Pi Alpha

The Theta Chapter of the Sigma Pi Alpha was established at Peace in 1939. The Sigma Pi Alpha, a national honorary language fraternity, seeks to promote interest in lands and languages other than that of our own country. Eligibility is based on general scholastic work as well as upon special ability in languages. The sponsor is Miss Mary Meares Galt.

Papyrus Club

The Papyrus Club is one of the oldest organizations at Peace College. It is a literary organization whose purpose is to encourage creative writing among the students. The Voices of Peace, a student magazine, is published under the sponsorship of the Papyrus Club. The Papyrus Club encourages a broader education in the field of literature.

Glee Club

CHARLIE RICHARDSON
President

One of the most vital organizations on the Peace College campus is the Glee Club. Under the excellent supervision of Miss Peggy Taylor, it is an organization which exists primarily for the purpose of bringing together all members of the student body who have the desire and ability for ensemble singing. For the members this has been a year filled with much hard work as well as pleasure.

During the year the club presented its annual Christmas, spring, and commencement concerts. The members participated in the Carol Festival and the State College Y.M.C.A. Christmas program.

Art Club

The Elsie Robertson Art Club was formed in 1943 for the purpose of helping the students gain a fuller appreciation of art.

The interest of the Art Club centers around the programs at the monthly meetings, as well as outside lectures, exhibits, and social gatherings which are in the interest of art. The club is responsible for a scholarship which is presented to a worthy Peace student.

JULIA STOUT

I. R. C.

NANCY LOVE COBLE
President

The International Relations Club is composed of Peace girls who are interested in current events and current problems. The club meets twice a month for lectures, discussions, and debates. The programs are presented by students and outside speakers.

The Peace International Relations Club is affiliated with the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and seeks to do its part to encourage the whole campus in careful reading, thinking, and analysis of the critical problems of our time. In order to have an actual part in helping to create a better world, the club for the past three years has sent boxes of food and clothing each month to our two "adopted" French children.

Daughters and Granddaughters Club

The Daughters and Granddaughters Club is composed of those girls whose mothers and grandmothers attended Peace.

Athletic Association

JOSEPHINE WEST
President

The Peace girls find recreation between their academic pursuits in their athletic activities. The Athletic Council, together with its sponsor, Miss Joyce Fowler, work out a well-rounded program for physical development, sportsmanlike competition, and interesting diversion throughout the year.

Tennis tournaments are features of the fall and spring. The volleyball tournament and inter-class hockey games are also conducted in the fall. During the winter basketball season, there is a keen spirit of rivalry among the students in the society tournament.

Every student at Peace is encouraged to take part in sports and to inspire higher ideals in sportsmanship.

Athletics in Action

Pi Theta Mu

Recipe for happiness: take one well-rounded Peace girl; flavor with fun; mix with good times and a lot of laughs; add a touch of interest and genuineness; sprinkle with humor! What have you? Why, a Pi, of course. We have had a grand time this year . . . there are memories of our big Halloween rush party . . . candle-light initiation . . . the lovely inter-society banquet . . . the society dance . . . and so our "Peace family pride" makes us feel that the Pi's have had a wonderful year to treasure in our memories!

Rho Delta Chi

What does Rho Delta Chi mean? It means a society which stands for honor and loyalty as well as school spirit.

The day of informal initiation was fun for the old Rho's but how the new Rho's suffered! Rush Week ended with a weiner roast on back campus.

The society banquet, competition in sports and society dance made all Rho's feel proud of their society. When they see the society colors (red 'n white), they all say, "Stand up and cheer for Rho Delta Chi."

Sigs, loyal Sigs, yes, that is what Sigs are—loyal to school, society, and sisters.

The Sig Rush Week "Backward Party" started the year off with a "bang" and was closed with the impressive installation of pledges.

The society banquet, close competition in sports with the other societies, society dance at Woman's Club, open house for the State Sigma Chi's, plus many happy hours spent in close fellowship that only the Sigma Phi Kappa can have, filled the year with memorable experiences!

KATHERINE BLUE

"Kacky" of the golden throat—yes, "Kacky" is known for many assets, and among her much-appreciated ones is her lovely voice. She is gifted with an attractiveness and unselfishness that are not often equalled. The P.S.C.A. Cabinet, the Student Council, the Privileged Honor Roll, Editorial Staff of the Lotus, and Glee Club all proudly claim her as a part. "Kacky" won't need a push to get to the top.

JANET BONEY

A fine attitude, high ideals, a bright personality—these are some of Janet's marks. Her friendly spirit radiates wherever she goes, and she is everyone's friend. Besides being a Privileged Honor Roll member, Janet is the treasurer of the Sigma Phi Kappa Society, a member of the P.S.C.A. Cabinet, and typist for the Papyrus Club. She will go far, and life will be kind to her, rewarding her for her considerate ways.

Seniors

MOLLIE ANNE BONEY

A living example to prove that personality and intelligence do come in the same package is Mollie Anne. She has about her a charm that would be hard to imitate. She has proved her ability in many ways—as officer in Sigma Pi Alpha and in Phi Theta Kappa, a marshal for the Pi Theta Mu Society, a Privileged Honor Roll member, secretary of the Student Council, and treasurer of the P.S.C.A. Cabinet.

NANCY LOVE COBLE

Anyone who can be the editor of an annual and retain her sense of humor is amazing—such a person is “Love.” She is that easy-going, unruffled type whom everyone adores. She has poured a great deal of interest into the International Relations Club as its president, as well as into the Student Council, and the Phi Theta Kappa and Sigma Pi Alpha societies of which she is a member. Her precision and her even temperament will lead her to the heights.

Outstanding

GWEN GORE

One would have to search the world over to find a girl who puts into her activities more sparkle of eyes and personality than does Gwen. Leadership ability has been shown in her presidency of the Sigma Phi Kappa Society, as a member of the P.S.C.A. Cabinet, and as treasurer of the Student Council. She is also a member of the Papyrus Club. Gwen is a very deserving person who will "catch the star for which she reaches."

SARAH FRANCES LASSITER

When "Sarah Frank" reached out delightedly for the silver cup on Stunt Night, she displayed her usual intense interest for the class. Selflessness has been an outstanding trait of hers. She has made the Senior Class an excellent president and the Student Council a valuable member. Her efficiency has been shown in her position as Business Manager of the Lotus. Whatever Sarah Frances sets out to do will be accomplished.

Seniors

SALLY TOWNSEND

Sally rose from Junior Class President to the presidency of the student body; she has carried out her duties quietly and efficiently. An outstanding characteristic is her modest dignity for which she is greatly liked and respected. She has taken part in the activities of the Papyrus and Daughters and Granddaughters Clubs, and is an ex-officio member of the P.S.C.A. Cabinet, and a member of the Privileged Honor Roll. Nothing can detract from Sally's example of unceasing leadership.

JOSEPHINE WEST

Jo belongs to that rare group of individuals known as conscientious workers. Her capability has sought many outlets. She is president of the Athletic Association, president of the Papyrus Club, and secretary of the P.S.C.A. Cabinet. She is also a member of the Student Council, Phi Theta Kappa, Sigma Pi Alpha, Editorial Staff of the Lotus, and the Daughters and Granddaughters Club. Because of her untiring zeal and efficiency, Jo's future is as bright as her smile.

Congratulations to the Women of the Class of 1950

It has been a pleasure to have served many of you during your years at "PEACE." It is our hope to merit your patronage throughout the coming years.

DUKE UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF NURSING
DURHAM, N. C.

The next class will be admitted September 15, 1950. Only one class is admitted each year.

Basic entrance requirements are scholastic aptitude, aptitude for nursing and integrity. The academic requirements are 16 units of high school and one year of college, including chemistry, biology or zoology and English. Annual tuition cost is $100 and covers the cost of instruction. Maintenance is supplied by Duke Hospital. Students buy their own uniforms and books.

Graduates of the Duke University School of Nursing, upon recommendation from the Dean of the School of Nursing, may apply for admission to Woman's College of Duke University and if admitted will be eligible for a degree by fulfilling the requirements. Credit will be given for the work in the School of Nursing and for college courses acceptable to Woman's College.

Application forms and bulletins may be obtained from: Dean, Duke University School of Nursing, Duke Hospital, Durham, North Carolina.

AMERICANS HAVE MORE OF EVERYTHING

You hear a lot of talk about the advantages of making our government socialistic. Don't be fooled. Freedom —and that's the American Way—pays off, and here's proof: Americans are only one sixteenth of the world population. Yet we produce almost one third of the world's goods. No other system beats that.

Remember when people urge that our government go socialistic by taking over the electric industry — steel — railroads — medicine and so on — that Americans have more of everything than anybody else. Freedom did it and never forget it. It makes a lot of difference to you.

READ THIS . . . before you decide on your profession

Do you like children?

Do you like to feel you're helping them develop, helping them build their lives and their futures?

Do you like facts and ideas . . . like to absorb them and add to your intellectual stature?

Do you like to feel you're taking part in the progress of your community, your state, your country — and the world?

Do you have imagination? Poise? Patience and understanding? Good health and normal energy?

If you can answer "yes" to these questions, the chances are good that you have a talent for teaching.

During the next few years, 230,000 teachers — over and above those required to fill normal vacancies — will be needed in our schools.

There is a special need for teachers in elementary grades . . . and there will be an even greater need during the years ahead.

Your place may be in this highly honored profession — look into the possibilities today.
